See existing Articles of Incorporation for present text.]*

The Members of KING'S GATE ASSOCIATION, INC. located in Sarasota County, Florida, adopt these Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation. The original Articles of Incorporation were filed with the Office of Secretary of State on August 1, 1974. The original Declaration of Condominium of KING'S GATE, A CONDOMINIUM was recorded at Official Records Book 2929, Page 2238 et seq. of the Public Records of Sarasota County, Florida.

1. NAME OF CORPORATION AND PRINCIPAL ADDRESS. The name of the corporation is KING'S GATE ASSOCIATION, INC. (herein, the "Association"). The street address of the principal office of the corporation shall be 1500 King's Way Drive, Nokomis, Florida 34275. The Association's Board of Directors may change the location of the principal office from time to time.

2. PURPOSE.

2.1 Purpose. The purpose for which the Association is organized is to provide an entity pursuant to Chapter 718, Florida Statutes (herein, the "Condominium Act"), for the operation of KING'S GATE, A CONDOMINIUM, located in Sarasota County, Florida.

2.2 Distribution of Income. The Association shall make no distribution of income to its Members, Directors or officers.

3. POWERS.

3.1 Common Law and Statutory Powers. The Association shall have all of the common law and statutory powers of a corporation not for profit, not in conflict with the terms of these Articles of Incorporation, the Association Bylaws, the Declaration of Condominium or the Condominium Act.

3.2 Specific Powers. The Association shall have all of the powers and duties set forth in the Condominium Act and the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act. The Association shall also have all the powers and duties set forth in the Declaration of Condominium (herein, the "Declaration") and the Association Bylaws, as they may be amended from time to time; and all of the powers and duties reasonably necessary to operate the Condominium pursuant to the Declaration and the Condominium Act, including, but not limited to, the following:

3.2.1 To make, amend and collect annual and special assessments against Members as Unit Owners to defray the Common Expenses and losses of the Association.

3.2.2 To use the proceeds of assessments in the exercise of its powers and duties.

3.2.3 To maintain, repair, alter, improve, replace, administer and operate the Condominium Property, which shall include the irrevocable right of access to each Unit during reasonable hours when necessary for the inspection, maintenance, repair or replacement of any Common Elements or any portion of the Unit to be maintained by the Association pursuant to the Declaration or as necessary to inspect and/or prevent damage to the Common Elements or a Unit or Units.

3.2.4 To purchase insurance upon the Condominium Property and insurance for the protection of the Association, its Directors, officers and its Members as Unit Owners.

3.2.5 To reconstruct improvements after casualty and to further improve the Condominium Property.

3.2.6 To make and amend reasonable rules regarding the use, appearance and occupancy of the Units and Common Elements of the Condominium. However, if at least one-third (1/3rd) of the Association's voting interests sign and submit a written petition to the Association's Board of Directors challenging a Board adopted rule, the President, or in his or her absence, the Vice President, will call and convene a special membership meeting within sixty (60) days of the Association's receipt of the petition. At the special membership meeting, the Board adopted rule will be rescinded upon the affirmative vote of at least fifty-one percent (51%) of the Association's total voting interests. If a quorum is not obtained or if less than fifty-one percent (51%) of the Association's voting interests vote to rescind the rule, then the Board adopted rule will remain in effect.

3.2.7 To approve or disapprove the transfer, lease, and ownership of Units in the Condominium.

3.2.8 To enforce by legal means the provisions of the Condominium Act, the Declaration, these Articles of Incorporation, the Association Bylaws and the Association Rules.

3.2.9 To contract for the management, operation, administration and maintenance of the Condominium Property and to delegate to such contractor any powers and duties of the Association, except such as are specifically required by the Declaration, these Articles of Incorporation, the Association Bylaws or by the Condominium Act to have the approval of the Board of Directors or the membership.

3.2.10 To employ personnel for reasonable compensation to perform the services required for proper administration and operation of the Condominium.

3.2.11 To enter into agreements acquiring leaseholds, membership and other possessory or use interests in lands or facilities, whether or not contiguous to the lands of the Condominium, intended to provide for the enjoyment, recreation or other use benefits of the Unit Owners.

3.2.12 To purchase, sell, transfer, lease or otherwise acquire Units or other real property in the name of the Association.

3.3 Emergency Powers. In the event of an emergency as defined herein, the Board of Directors may exercise the emergency powers described herein, and any other powers authorized by the provisions of Section 718.1265, Florida Statutes, and Sections 617.0207 and 617.0303, Florida Statutes, all as amended from time to time. For purposes of this Article 3.3 only, an emergency exists during a period of time that the Condominium, or the immediate geographic area in which the Condominium is located, is subject to: a state of emergency declared by civil or law enforcement authorities; a hurricane watch or warning as issued by a governmental authority; a partial or complete evacuation order issued by civil or law enforcement authorities; the declaration of a federal or state "disaster area" status; or catastrophe, whether natural or manmade, which seriously damages, or threatens to seriously damage the physical existence of the Condominium. During an emergency as defined herein, the Board of Directors may exercise the following emergency powers:

3.3.1 Conduct Board meetings and membership meetings with notice given as is practicable. Such notice may be given in any practicable manner, including publication, telephone, radio, United States mail, email, the Internet, public service announcements, and conspicuous posting on the Condominium Property or any other means the Board deems reasonable under the circumstances. Notice of Board decisions may be communicated as provided in this Article. The Directors in attendance at such a Board meeting (if more than one (1) Director) shall constitute a quorum.

3.3.2 Cancel and reschedule any Association Board, membership or committee meeting.

3.3.3 Name as interim assistant officers persons who are not Directors, which assistant officers shall have the same authority as the executive officers to whom they are assistants during the state of emergency to accommodate the incapacity or unavailability of any officer of the Association.

3.3.4 Relocate the Association's principal office or designate alternative principal offices.

3.3.5 Enter into agreements with local counties and municipalities to assist counties and municipalities with debris removal.

3.3.6 Implement a disaster plan before or immediately following the event for which a state of emergency is declared which may include, but is not limited to, electricity, water, sewer, security systems, or air conditioners.

3.3.7 Based upon advice of emergency management officials or upon the advice of licensed professionals retained by the Board, determine any portion of the Condominium Property unavailable for entry or occupancy by Unit Owners, family members, tenants, guests, agents, or invitees to protect the health, safety, or welfare of such persons.

3.3.8 Require the evacuation of the Condominium Property in the event of a mandatory evacuation order in the locale in which the Condominium is located. Should any Unit Owner or other occupant of the Condominium fail or refuse to evacuate the Condominium Property where the Board has required evacuation, the Association shall be immune from liability or injury to persons or property arising from such failure or refusal.

3.3.9 Based upon advice of emergency management officials or upon the advice of licensed professionals retained by the Board, determine whether the Condominium Property can be safely inhabited or occupied. However, such determination is not conclusive as to any determination of habitability pursuant to the Declaration.

3.3.10 Mitigate further damage, including taking action to contract for the removal of debris and to prevent or mitigate the spread of mold, mildew or fungus by removing and disposing of wet drywall, insulation, carpet, carpet pad, baseboards, air ducts, cabinetry, any and all personal property or belongings of the resident or Owner, including but not limited to furniture, clothes, mattresses, and all other fixtures on or within the Condominium Property, even if the Unit Owner is obligated by the Declaration or law to insure or replace those fixtures and to remove personal property from a Unit.

3.3.11 Contract, on behalf of any Unit Owner or Owners, for items or services for which the Owners are otherwise individually responsible for, but which are necessary to prevent further damage to the Condominium Property. In such event, the Unit Owner or Owners on whose behalf the Board has contracted are responsible for reimbursing the Association for the actual costs of the items or services, and the Association may use its assessment and claim of lien authority provided by Section 718.116, Florida Statutes and in the Declaration of Condominium to enforce collection of the charges. Without limitation, such items or services may include the drying of Units, the boarding or other enclosure of broken or damaged windows, sliding glass doors, exterior doors, and the replacement of damaged air conditioners or air handlers to provide climate control in the Units or other portions of the Condominium Property.

3.3.12 Regardless of any provision to the contrary and even if such authority does not specifically appear in the Declaration of Condominium, Articles of Incorporation, or Association Bylaws, the Association's Board of Directors may levy one or more special assessments without a vote of the Owners.

3.3.13 Without Unit Owners' approval, borrow money and pledge Association assets as collateral to fund emergency repairs and carry out the duties of the Association when operating funds are insufficient. This paragraph does not limit the general authority of the Association to borrow money, subject to such restrictions as are contained in the Declaration of Condominium, Articles of Incorporation, or Association Bylaws.

3.3.14 Corporate action taken in good faith to meet the emergency needs of the Association or its Unit Owners shall bind the Association; have the rebuttable presumption of being reasonable and necessary; and may not be used to impose liability on a Director, officer, or employee. An officer, Director, or employee acting in good faith and in accordance with this Article is only liable for willful misconduct.

The special powers authorized above in this Article 3.3 shall be limited to the time period reasonably necessary to protect the health, safety, and welfare of the Association and the Unit Owners and the Unit Owners' family members, tenants, guests, agents, or invitees and shall be reasonably necessary to mitigate further damage and make emergency repairs to the Condominium Property.

3.4 Assets Held In Trust. All funds and the titles of all properties acquired by the Association and their proceeds shall be held in trust for the Members in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration, these Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws of the Association.

3.5 Limitation on Exercise of Powers. The powers of the Association shall be subject to and shall be exercised in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium and Association Bylaws.

4. MEMBERS.

4.1 Members. The Members of the Association shall consist of all of the record of owners of Units in KING'S GATE, A CONDOMINIUM, which interest is evidenced by a duly recorded proper instrument in the Public Records of Sarasota County, Florida. Membership in the Association shall terminate automatically and immediately as a Member's vested interest in the fee title terminates, except that upon termination of the Condominium, the membership shall consist of those who were Members at the time of the conveyance of the respective Units to the trustee as provided in the Declaration of Condominium. In the event a Unit is owned by a legal entity other than a natural person, the officer, director or other official so designated by such legal entity shall exercise its membership rights.

4.2 Change of Membership. After receiving written approval of the Association required by the Declaration, change of membership in the Association shall be established by the recording in the Public Records of Sarasota County, Florida, a deed or other appropriate instrument establishing a record interest to a Unit in the Condominium and the delivery to the Association of a copy of such deed or other instrument or conveyance. The person or persons named on the deed or other instrument thereby becomes a Member of the Association and the membership of the prior assignee is terminated.

4.3 Limitation on Transfer of Shares of Assets. The share of a Member in the funds and assets of the Association cannot be assigned, hypothecated or transferred in any manner, except as an appurtenance to the Member's Condominium Unit.

4.4 Vote. Each Condominium Unit shall be entitled to one (1) vote at Association membership meetings, notwithstanding that the same Owner may own more than one Unit or that Units may be joined together and occupied by one Owner. The manner of exercising voting rights shall be determined by the Declaration, these Articles of Incorporation and the Association Bylaws. No vote shall be allocated to a Unit owned by the Association.

5. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

5.1 Board of Directors. The property, business and affairs of the Association shall be managed by the Board of Directors, composed as provided in the Association Bylaws, but in no event consisting of less than three (3) Directors. A Director must fulfill all requirements of eligibility provided in the Association Bylaws and Declaration.

5.2 Election of Directors. Directors of the Association shall be elected at the annual meeting of Members in the manner determined by the Association Bylaws and the Condominium Act. Directors may be removed and vacancies on the Board of Directors shall be filled in the manner provided by the Association Bylaws and the Condominium Act.

6. OFFICERS. The affairs of the Association shall be administered as directed by the Board of Directors and by the officers designated in the Association Bylaws. The officers shall be elected by the Board of Directors at its organizational meeting following the annual meeting of the Members of the Association. Officers shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors.

7. INDEMNIFICATION OF OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS.

7.1 Indemnity. The Association shall indemnify any officer, Director, or committee member who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or contemplated action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, by reason of the fact that he is or was a Director, officer, or committee member of the Association, against expenses (including attorney's fees and appellate attorney's fees), judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit, or proceeding, unless (i) a court of competent jurisdiction finally determines, after all appeals have been exhausted or not pursued by the proposed indemnitee, that he did not act in good faith or in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Association, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that he had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, and (ii) such court also determines specifically that indemnification should be denied. The termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Association, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful. It is the intent of the membership of the Association, by the adoption of this provision, to provide the most comprehensive indemnification possible to their officers, directors, and committee members as permitted by Florida law.

7.2 Defense. To the extent that a Director, officer, or committee member of the Association has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit, or proceeding referred to in Article 7.1 above, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorney's fees and appellate attorney's fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

7.3 Advances. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit, or proceeding shall be paid by the Association in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit, or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the affected Director, officer, or committee member to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Association as authorized by this Article 7.

7.4 Miscellaneous. The indemnification provided by this Article 7 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of Members, or otherwise, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a Director, officer, or committee member and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs and personal representatives of such person. Anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, the provisions of this Article 7 may not be amended without the approval in writing of all persons whose interest would be adversely affected by such amendment.

7.5 Insurance. The Association has the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a Director, officer, committee member, employee, or agent of the Association, or a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Association would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article.

No amendment shall be made which is in conflict with the Condominium Act or the Declaration of Condominium.

9.4 Automatic Amendment. These Articles of Incorporation shall be deemed amended, if necessary, so as to make the same consistent with the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium or the Bylaws. Whenever Chapter 718, Florida Statutes, Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, or other applicable statutes or administrative regulations, as amended from time to time, are amended to impose procedural requirements less stringent than set forth in the Articles of Incorporation, the Board may operate the Association pursuant to the less stringent requirements. The Board of Directors, without a vote of the Owners, may adopt by majority vote, amendments to these Articles of Incorporation as the Board deems necessary to comply with such operational changes as may be enacted by future amendments to Chapters 607, 617, and 718 of the Florida Statutes, or such other statutes or administrative regulations as required for the operation of the Association, all as amended from time to time.
